CHAPTER 362

(Senate Bill 853)

AN ACT concerning

Maryland Historical Trust

FOR the purpose of authorizing the Maryland Historical Trust to make loans and grants under the Capital Revolving Fund for Historic Preservation and the Capital Grant Fund for Historic Preservation, respectively, to political subdivisions and business entities; permitting grants to be made to business entities by the Maryland Historical Trust, up to a certain amount of all grants made by the Trust under a certain provision of the Annotated Code, and only for a certain period of time; altering and clarifying the interest rate that may be charged on loans under the Capital Revolving Fund for Historic Preservation; changing the submission date for annual reports to the Governor and the Department of Fiscal Services; clarifying language; generally relating to the Capital Revolving Fund for Historic Preservation and the Capital Grant Fund for Historic Preservation; and making this Act an emergency measure.
